

SPEAKER BIO

Kari Mirabal is an international keynote and TEDx speaker, author, LinkedIn strategist, and consultant who teaches people how to NETWORK SMARTER—so they can attract, not chase, opportunities and unlock new possibilities. Known for high-energy and real-world storytelling, Kari's bold "go for the ASK" approach challenges audiences to take confident, intentional action. She works with Fortune 500 companies, executive leaders, and professionals around the globe to spark curiosity, build momentum, and ignite one powerful question: What would change if I stopped playing small?

SAMPLE INTRODUCTION

Kari Mirabal, International keynote and TEDx speaker, author, and consultant shares innovative networking strategies to help professionals leverage the power of authentic connection. Mirabal shares knowledge gathered from decades of experience and whose clients include Fortune 500 companies and executive leaders across the country and abroad. Mirabal's company develops corporate programs, products, and presentations that benefit those interested in earning new clients, increasing profits, and advancing careers through networking.

